

— Playing area

During the WFG 2010, the participants will play at the world-class sporting venues. And we are very thrilled to introduce you one of world-class stunning sporting venues, 'The Daegu Stadium'. With more than 66,000 seats available, the stadium was smartly designed to provide the minimum distance system between playing area and spectator's area. The Stadium went through '2002 FIFA Korea/Japan World Cup' and waiting for the start of '2011 IAAF World Championships in Athletics' will be held. A section of sports will also take place at venues in superb locations across the Daegu city, such as sailing and beach volleyball in Pohang. If you are still hesitating about which events to sign up for, events list will help you.

PLAN YOUR TRIP TO DAEGU NOW

Access

Participants from all over the world are most likely to arrive at Incheon International Airport, one of the world's busiest airport with the best convenient accessibility from any place of the world. There are several options you can choose to get to Daegu (located at the southeastern part of Korea) from Incheon International Airport area, about 50km away from Seoul. Incheon International Airport is 335km away from Daegu city.

○ Plane

Daegu International Airport operates domestic flights between Daegu and Seoul (Incheon International Airport) about 2 times a day and it takes about 50 minutes. Standard price will be 55USD as of Apr. 2009.

○ Train

High-speed train (KTX) enables a Seoul-Daegu trip in 1 hour and 40 minutes with a standard price of 40USD. An additional transfer will be needed to get to Seoul Station for using KTX.

Please note that information above including standard price is estimated and could be changed anytime. Also, the WFG2010 team is in the process of arranging transportation for WFG2010 participating athletes and their families.

Accommodation

A variety of hotels from business hotels to five-star hotels are waiting for participants with fully-equipped facilities and promising the best services. The average hotel price ranges between 100USD to 250USD per night. However WFG2010 host team is currently in negotiations with certain hotels regarding discounts available for athletic participants. For more economical options, quality motels and hostels are available.
